Trevor Pinnock Gala Concert

Bach Partita 4 in D      Froberger Sonatas
Rameau Suite in A      Couperin 8ème Ordre

Trevor Pinnock CBE needs little introduction. Having pioneered historically-informed performance as a harpsichordist he founded his own orchestra, The English Concert in 1972, which broadcasts frequently on BBC Radio 3. Trevor has recorded more than 100 CDs as soloist, concerto soloist and conductor. In 2006 he formed the European Brandenburg Ensemble, whose first recording won the 2008 Gramophone Award. Trevor Pinnock is a patron of Cherubim Music Trust.

Tisbury Music Café

Bring your own dinner and enjoy it by candlelight, listening to great music...

Tisbury Music Café is a hugely popular way of presenting music in a relaxed atmosphere. Wine bar, coffee & puddings available.

Cherubim Music Trust

Cherubim Music Trust was created in 2001 to loan high quality instruments to young musicians who cannot afford one to the calibre their talents demand. 17 young performers have been assisted so far, plus newly awarded instruments to 3 outstanding young players.
